Cleiborne Martin, a mulatto, claiming Huntington, W. Va., as his home, attracted quite a crowd on Market street Esplanade last night by his singing and preaching. He is about 6 feet 6 inches tall, and the way he dresses makes him resemble a crazy man. He wears a large opossum skin hat, long, shaggy hair, a large overcoat, large gloves, but is absolutely devoid of any covering for his feet. He said he was a coal miner by trade and a Preacher by profession.

Interest in Table Linens

KEEPS UP.

And it wouldn't if the linens didn't justify it. There is a big strain on the stocks these days. But it is well sustained. After all that is where we get our strength. The more you keep us at our wits end to give the best for the money, the faster we develop.

The spirit of this linen event is told in four words:

Best qualities!

Money saved! Not a few pieces marked down as leaders, but "heaps" of handsome damasks from Ireland, Scotland and Germany, priced at the smallest possible margin.

LINEN ECHOES.

"Lest we forget" our regular $1.25 and $1.50 Damask for $1. Twelve pieces altogether. Odd lots left from the immense selling of the past week. We have made the uniform price of $1 as a demonstration that this February sale at Hunt's is an epoch in linen merchandising.

DAMASK TOWELS 25c.

Yes! You CAN get damask towels every day and everywhere for 25c, but not THIS towel. Big and serviceable in size. Just as good after any number of visits to the laundry. The all linen sort that doesn't mean "except what's cotton." Handsome enough for the guest chamber and sturdy enough for every day use.

NAPKINS.

Arrested in Austria, hurried across the Atlantic and freed in Maysville. Happy captives, ready for long and cheerful service to those who claim them.

The best, quite the best napkins we ever found to sell for $2. After this week they return to that price, which honestly represents much for little. Sale price $1.50.

The advantage we offer to the ladies of Maysville in showing our wash goods so early this year seems to have been well appreciated, and not only by the buyers, but by the dressmakers, too. Two of the many advantages of buying at our early spring opening are the choice of styles and the ability of getting the goods made up now, for six weeks hence the dressmakers are too busy to take on much work.

THERE are no flies on the Tennessee Legislature. It has just passed one of those foolish anti-Kissing bills-making it applicable only to the great statesman who proposed it! Other Legislatures where these silly measures have been offered might with profit follow suit.

A REAL old-fashioned Democratic "primary" was held at Cadiz, Trigg county, t'other afternoon. Koehn C. Duffy and Judge Jack T. HANBERY, candidates for the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney in the Third Judicial District, had a sensational fistic encounter. Duffy charged that HANBERY, after losing the nomination in the last Convention, contemplated making an independent race for Attorney. HANBERY branded the statement as an infamous lie. Duffy struck him a stinging blow on the head. As they clinched Hanbery's father, 'Squire Tom Han-BERY, struck DUFFY three times on the head with a walking cane. Both candidates were painfully but not seriously elected.

THE year is young; yet Louisville has already scored four brutal murders.

THOSE Parsons who threaten to "pray Cincinnati into civic righteouness" need to be educated to the fact that the vote of one rat-row bummer will have more weight at the polls, than all the prayers that can be sandwiched between the two Miamis. Prayers are all right—when the prayists supplement them with work.

Oн, yes; Philadelphia is a very sleepy old town; but where else on the face of the earth is such an establishment as the Baldwin Locomotive Works, and it is only one of that city's thousands of big manufactories. Its employes number almost twice the entire population of Maysville. But read this-

PHILADELPHIA, January 28.—Six complete locomotives are now turned out daily at the Baldwin Locomotive Works, but even with this supply the demand for motive power by the various great systems cannot be made. JOHN H. CONVERSE, President of the Baldwin Works, says the present condition of affairs is unprecedented.

'We are working continuously, night and day," he said, "and are turning out on an average one complete locomotive every four hours. The various branches of our plant are rushed with work. The demand for motive power by the railroads does not seem to slacken."

The Baldwin Works employ 13,000 men. The order of the Pennsylvania for 350 locomotives, placed some time ago, is being rapidly filled. For this road the Baldwin Works are delivering seven locomotives every six days, and the Railroad Company is completing a locomotive every two days in its Altoona shops.

Women, Why Suffer?

Nervousness and Its Train of Terrible old. Evils Permanently Banished By

Paine's Celery Compound

Mrs. Clark Tells of Her Happy Rescue From Suffering After Failures of Physicians.

Nervous disorders and diseases are on the increase, and women are the chief sufferers. Digestion gives out, there are pains in the head, the tongue is coated, the muscles ache, there is constipation, heart palpitation, gloomy fears oppress continually and sleep is broken and disturbed.

The only reliable remedy that medical science has given to humanity for the cure of nervousness is Paine's Celery Compound, prescribed by eminent physicians with the happiest results. In critical cases, Paine's Celery Compound has saved life and restored health when all other medicines failed. Mrs. F. A. Clark of Moscow, Idaho, writes as follows about her success with Paine's Celery Compound:

"While suffering terribly from nervousness and nervous prostration, I was attended by several physicians but their efforts brought no assuring results. I finally got so bad that it was impossible to sleep at night. My husband again wanted me to have a doctor, but I told him it was no use. He then went to our druggist who recommended Paine's Celery Compound. The first night I used the Compound I slept well and I continued to improve from day to day. I used in all eight bottles of Paine's Celery Compound and am perfectly cured. I cannot say enough in its favor."

Our Vinol is the Remedy for all Pulmonary Affections.

Vinol is a preparation that is delicious to take

It consists of a delicate table wine in which has been dissolved the active curative principles that are found in the liver of the live cod, and to which cod-liver oil owes its reputation as a remedy for coughs, colds and all wasting diseases. If there is any one who has a cough, a tendency to take cold easily, or a dread of consumption, we would like to have them call and permit us to explain what we know about Vinol and why we believe it will cure all such troubles more surely and quickly than any other remedy ever given to the Following is a letter which has just come to hand and which shows how beneficially Vinol acted in one instance:

"I had a severe cough of long standing. I was advised by friends to give your Vinol a trial, which I did. Before taking it I had tried many other remedies for coughs without obtaining any relief. With Vinol it was different. I have now used four bottles of it, and am pleased to say my cough has almost entirely left me. I have been decidedly benefited by its use in every way. Very truly yours."-H. E. SMALL, Boston,

Vino acts beneficially upon the digestive organs, enabling them to obtain for themselves the elements from which are made firm healthy flesh tissue, sound muscle, strong bone structure and pure blood.

We recommend Vinol unreservedly. If you will call on us at our store, we will tell you why we have such faith in this new wine of cod-liver oil.

We guarantee that if you suffer from which we know Vinol is intended, we will refund to you your money if you

THE INVENTION OF THE COTTON GIN. Find Ell Whitney.

It was in 1793, during Washington's first term as president, that the cotton gin was invented by Eli Whitney, then a young man, but recently graduated from Harvard college, and who was boarding at Savannah, Ga., with the widow of Gen. Nathaniel Green. It was at the request of the Widow Green that young Whitney made an effort to construct a machine that would separate the cotton fiber from the seed. His machine would perform the work of a thousand men; made cotton cultivation possible for the south, where it quickly became a leading industry, and added millions of dollars to the wealth of the inhabitants.
